NEWS AT WHITE HOUSE

It Came as President Was Preparing For Church.

SHAFTER REPORTED LATER.

He Says He Found the Spanish Position Very Strong.

HAD NOT ANTICIPATED SUCH.

The American General Believes It Would Have Cost Five Thousand Lives to Have Driven the Dons From Santiago by Storm.

Washington, July 18.—The first message conveying the news of Santiago's formal surrender was received at the White House shortly before 11 o'clock, just as the president was preparing to go to church.

About 5 o'clock in the afternoon General Shafter forwarded a dispatch that graphically told the story of the day and portrayed a situation entirely satisfactory from the American point of view.

The first message did not come from Shafter, but from the vigilant signal officer, who has before shown that he was alert for vital events.

It was brief, saying only that the surrender had been accomplished; that the Spanish troops marched out of the trenches, one regiment at a time, stacking arms for delivery to the American forces, and that the Spanish flag had been hauled down.

Secretary Alger and Adjutant General Corbin were at the war department at the time and were soon apprised of the news, but as it did not come in the usual form as a report from General Shafter, the fact was not bulletined.

Secretary Alger expressed his deep gratification at the culmination of the Santiago campaign. He had fully expected the surrender to be formally carried out at 9 o'clock Sunday morning according to General Shafter's telegram Saturday night, yet it was a relief to know that the last chance for parley and Spanish diplomacy had passed, and that our flag was now flying over the city.

"It is a magnificent achievement," said he, "and most of all it is a tribute to the bravery, pluck and endurance of our American soldiers. Now that their efforts have brought final and complete success, I believe their campaign will be recorded as one of the most glorious pages of our military history. Not more than 10,000 men were engaged when the most serious fighting occurred, but they pushed forward and created a condition which has brought the surrender of 25,000 men."

Late in the afternoon the official dispatch came from General Shafter giving in brief military fashion an unusually clear statement from the general of the day's events.

It was entirely satisfactory from every point of view, showing that the American army was in complete control of a city that it would have cost 5,000 lives to capture by storm.

Moreover, it was very encouraging from a medical view in that it showed, contrary to what had been expected, that there was little sickness and scarcely any yellow fever in Santiago, but a great deal of suffering and distress. The dispatch follows:

"Santiago de Cuba, July 17.—I have the honor to announce that the American flag has been this instant, 12 o'clock (noon), hoisted over the house of the civil government in the city of Santiago. An immense concourse of people present.

"A squad of cavalry and a regiment of infantry presented arms and a band played a national air. Light battery fired salute of 21 guns.

"Perfect order is being maintained by municipal government. Distress is very great; but little sickness in town. Scarcely any yellow fever.

"A small gunboat and about 200 seamen left by Cervera have surrendered to me. Obstructions are being removed from mouth of harbor.

"Upon coming into the city I discovered a perfect entanglement of defenses. Fighting as the Spaniards did the first day, it would have cost 5,000 lives to have taken it.

"Battalions of Spanish troops have been depositing arms since daylight in armory, over which I have a guard.

"General Toral formally surrendered the plaza and all stores at 9 a. m.

The president, after his return from church, had a conference with Secretaries Alger and Long and Captain Brownshied; chief of the bureau of navigation, and a member of the naval war board.

It was stated after the meeting that plans had been discussed for an aggressive movement, in which both army and navy will take part, against Porto Rico.

Before going to the White house Secretary Alger had been in conference with General Brooke for two hours.

They had before them a large number of maps of Porto Rico and the plans of campaign were discussed from every point of view.

It is expected that General Miles will go direct from Santiago to Porto Rico and that General Stone and Colonel Michler of his staff will leave New York in a day or two, on the Resolute, to join the general at Santiago.

During the day the secretary of war indorsed the plan of Colonel Hecker for the transportation of the Spanish forces at Santiago back to Spain, approving a circular Colonel Hecker had prepared calling for bids for transporting the Spaniards home.

It provides for an aggregate of 1,000 Spanish officers with first-class cabin accommodations, and 24,000 soldiers with third-class steerage passage.

The circular says that the Spanish forces will be delivered on board at Santiago for transportation to Cadiz, Spain, or such other port as may be designated.

It is provided that the accommodations are to be up to the standard required by the United States army regulations as to officers and men, in regard to galleys, ventilation, etc.

The subsistence furnished is to be equal to the prescribed United States army ration which is set forth in details as a guide to bidders as to what they must furnish.

The only disquieting information received during the day was as to the yellow fever conditions at the front and this dispatch was modified in an encouraging way by General Shafter's later news.

It was a dispatch from Colonel Greenleaf, chief surgeon with the army in Cuba, saying that 16 new cases had appeared.

While this was regarded with some apprehension by laymen, the surgeon general's department considered the showing entirely satisfactory.

Colonel Alden, acting surgeon general during the absence of General Sternberg, said a report of only 16 cases was an exceptionally good showing, as the number must be taken relatively to the large number of men at the front.

With the surrender accomplished there will be better opportunity to get the men on high ground and keep them away from infection.

During the day a report was received stating positively that no cases of yellow fever existed on the Harvard, which brought a large number of sick Spanish prisoners to Portsmouth, N. H.

This not only relieved officials as to the condition at Portsmouth, but also as to the Harvard, for it would be a severe handicap to the navy if this crack craft had to go into quarantine.

TERMS OF SURRENDER.

Santiago de Cuba, July 18.—The agreement under which the Spaniards surrendered consists of nine articles:

First—That all hostilities shall cease pending the agreement of final capitulation.

Second—That the capitulation includes all the Spanish forces and the surrender of all war material within the prescribed limits.

Third—The transportation of the troops to Spain at the earliest possible moment, each force to be embarked at the nearest port.

Fourth—That the Spanish officers shall retain their sidearms and the enlisted men their personal property.

Fifth—That after the final capitulation the Spanish forces shall assist in the removal of all obstructions to navigation in Santiago harbor.

Sixth—That after the final capitulation the commanding officers shall furnish a complete inventory of all arms and munitions of war and a roster of all the soldiers in the district.

Seventh—That the Spanish general shall be permitted to take the military archives and records with him.

Eighth—That all guerrillas and Spanish irregulars shall be permitted to remain in Cuba if they so elect, giving a parole that they will not again take up arms against the United States unless properly released from parole.

Ninth—That the Spanish forces shall be permitted to march out with all the honors of war, depositing their arms to be disposed of by the United States in the future, the American commissioners to recommend to their government that the arms of the soldiers be returned to those "who so bravely defended them."

The articles were signed Saturday afternoon after a four hours' session of the commissioners, who agreed that the terms of capitulation should await the sanction of the Madrid government.

General Toral, the white-haired commander of the Spanish forces, was present throughout the session and appeared to be utterly heart broken. He spoke bitterly of the fate which compelled him to sue for peace, but had no word to say against the gallant men who had conquered his army. He declared that he had little chance to win.

"I would not desire to see my worst enemy play with the cards I held," he said to one of the commissioners. "Every one of my generals were killed or wounded. I have not a single colonel left and am surrounded by a powerful enemy. We have counted 67 ships off this port."

"And, besides," he concluded, wearily waving his hands towards the city, "I have secret troubles there."

Speaking of the battle of the 24th of June, in which the "rough riders" and a part of General Young's command participated, General Toral said that less than 2,000 Spanish troops were engaged, his loss being 265. He would not say how many Spaniards were killed at El Caney and before Santiago. "Heavy! heavy!" he said dejectedly.

In response to an inquiry, he said that transportation would be required for between 22,000 and 25,000 men, there being that much of a force in the capitulated district. He informed the officers that Santiago harbor had been again mined since Admiral Cervera left.

This Is Amazing.

Madrid, July 18.—A member of the ministry declares that negotiations for peace with the United States are only possible so far as the question of Cuba is concerned. To demand more would be to say that Spain must commit suicide.

ARMS LAID DOWN.

Haughty Dons Deliver Their Shooting Irons to American Forces.

Santiago de Cuba, July 18.—A mid impressive ceremonies the Spanish troops laid down their arms between the lines of the Spanish and American forces at 9 o'clock Sunday morning.

General Shafter and the American division and brigade commanders and their staffs were escorted by a troop of cavalry and General Toral and his staff by 100 picked men.

Trumpeters on both sides saluted with flourishes. General Shafter returned to General Toral the latter's sword after it had been handed to the American commander.

Our troops, lined up at the trenches, were eyewitnesses of the ceremony. General Shafter and his escort, accompanied by General Toral, rode through the city, taking formal possession. The city had been sacked by the Spaniards before they arrived.

The Thirteenth and Ninth regiments of infantry will remain in the city to enforce order and exercise municipal authority. The Spanish forces are to encamp outside of our lines.

The work of loading the Spanish prisoners on transports preparatory to sending them back to Spain will be commenced as soon as ships are provided. The authorities at Washington have been urged to use haste in this matter.

It has been suggested to use Spanish transports for this work, fear being expressed that the use of American vessels would result in rendering them dangerous for use in moving American troops on account of the exposure of the Spaniards to yellow fever.

Spanish Barracks Burned.
Playa del Este, Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, July 18.—Captain Hunker of the gunboat Annapolis has returned from Baracoa, where he had been three days watching for blockade runners. He had a slight engagement there with the Spanish who fired upon him with field pieces, but did no injury. Captain Hunker returned the fire, setting fire to and burning the Spanish barracks.

Only One Death.
Washington, July 18.—The war department posted the following at 10:30 a. m. Sunday:

"Siboney, July 16. — Sixteen new cases past 24 hours; one death. Sanitation measures rigid.

"GREENLEAF, Chief Surgeon."

Exploding Their Ammunition.
Madrid, July 18.—An official dispatch from Porto Rico says 150 cases of ammunition exploded there, killing 14 persons and wounding many others.

OLD GLORY WAS RAISED

Over the City of Santiago at Noon Sunday.

SPANISH FLAG PULLED DOWN

The Ceremony Was as Imposing as It Was Important.

IT WAS WORTH ALL IT COST.

General McKibbin Has Been Appointed Temporary Military Governor, but the Present Municipal Authorities Will Remain.

Santiago, Cuba, July 18.—The American flag is floating in triumph over the governor's palace at Santiago de Cuba. General McKibbin has been appointed temporary military governor.

The ceremony of hoisting the stars and stripes was worth all the blood and treasure it cost. A vast concourse of 10,000 people witnessed the stirring and thrilling scene that will live forever in the minds of the Americans present.

A finer stage setting for a dramatic episode it would be difficult to imagine. The palace, a picturesque old dwelling in the Moorish style of architecture, faces the Plaza de la Reina, the principal public square. Opposite rises the imposing Catholic cathedral.

On one side is a quaint, brilliantly painted building, with broad verandas—the club of San Carlos; on the other, a building of much the same description, is the Cafe de la Venus.

Across the plaza was drawn up the Ninth infantry, headed by the Sixth cavalry band. In the street facing the palace stood the troop of the Second cavalry, with drawn sabers, under the command of Captain Brett. Massed on the stone flagging between the band and the line of horsemen were the brigade commanders of General Shafter's division, with their staffs.

IMPOSING TABLEAU.
On the red tiled roof of the palace stood Captain McKittrick, Lieutenant Miley and Lieutenant Wheeler; immediately above them, upon the flagstaff, the illuminated Spanish arms and the legend, "Vive Alfonso XIII"; all about, pressing against the veranda rails, crowding to windows and doors and lining the roofs, were the people of the town, principally women and noncombatants.

As the chimes of the old cathedral rang out the hour of 12 the infantry and cavalry presented arms. Every American uncovered and Captain McKittrick hoisted the stars and stripes. As the brilliant folds unfurled in a gentle breeze against a fleecy sky the cavalry band broke into the strains of "The Star Spangled Banner," making the American pulse leap and the American heart thrill with joy.

At the same instant the sound of the distant booming of Captain Capron's battery, firing a salute of 21 guns, drifted in. When the music ceased from all directions around our line came floating across the plaza the strains of the regimental bands and the muffled, hoarse cheers of our troops.

The infantry came to "order arms" a moment later, after the flag was up, and the band played "Rally Round the Flag, Boys." Instantly General McKibbin called forth three cheers for General Shafter, which were given with great enthusiasm, the band playing Sousa's "The Stars and Stripes Forever."

The ceremony over, General Shafter and his staff returned to the American lines, leaving the city in the possession of the municipal authorities, subject to the control of General McKibbin.

REFUGEES RETURN.
Some Were Naked, All Hungry, and Some Fell by the Wayside.

Santiago de Cuba, July 18.—Since 4 o'clock Sunday morning a stream of refugees has been pouring into the city, some naked, and all hungry, skeletons and footsore. Many had fallen by the wayside.

The town of Santiago presents a dismal sight. Most of the houses have been sacked and the stores have all been looted and nothing to eat can be had for love or money.

In the streets of the city Sunday morning, at the intrenchments, at the breastworks and at every hundred feet or so of the barbed wire fences, were the living skeletons of Spanish soldiers.

Among the arrivals Sunday were the German, Japanese and Portuguese consuls and their families, the British and French consuls having arrived Friday. General Pando was never here, but 3,500 men from Manzanillo arrived on July 3, making the total garrison here 7,000.

The contact mines in the harbor were removed the day Admiral Cervera left, but two chains of electric mines, one from Estrella Point and the other from Socapa, are still down.

The armament of the shore batteries of Santiago consists of five brass 18-inch muzzle loaders in the Morro fortifications; two 6-inch Montorias, from the cruiser Reina Mercedes, and three 21-centimeter mortars—never used—in the Socapa upper battery; two useless 21-centimeter mortars, two 8-centimeter muzzle loaders and four 8-centimeter field pieces in the Estrella battery, one 57-millimeter and one 25-millimeter Nordenfeldt and one 37-millimeter Hotchkiss in the Socapa lower battery, and two 6-inch Montorias, two 9-centimeter Krupp's and two 15-centimeter mortars at Punta Gorda.

Four Spanish merchant steamers—the Mortera, the Reina de Los Angeles, the Tomas Brooks and the Mexico—and the gunboat Alvarado are now in the harbor.

Twenty-two thousand refugees are quartered at El Caney, 5,000 at Firmesa and 5,000 at Cabañas El Bonifacio and San Vincente, where they have been living for a fortnight.

In one case 500 were crowded into one building, which was a regular pigsty, with a horrible stench. They used the water from the river, where soiled clothing was washed and all manner of filth is floating.

The Spanish troops will be camped two miles outside the city limits, under guard, until their embarkation takes place.

The docks are crowded by incoming refugees in a starving condition, awaiting the arrival in the harbor of the Red Cross society's steamer State of Texas, as there are no eatables to be bought in the city.

The entrance of the refugees was quiet and peaceful, they viewing their wrecked homes philosophically as the fortune of war. Admiral Sampson's last bombardment of Santiago wrecked 57 houses in the city, causing heavy damage.

A Golden Jubilee.

Piqua, O., July 18.—All churches here suspended their regular services and pointed in a union service at the Cavalry Baptist church, whose pastor, Rev. P. M. Weddell, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of active service in the ministry. Dr. Weddell preached from the text used by him in his sermon 50 years ago. He has been pastor at Pittsburg, Canton, Wooster, Dayton and Piqua, O., at the latter place for 20 years, and has baptized 5,000 converts and performed several thousand marriage ceremonies.

Joy and Sorrow Mingled.

Paris, July 18.—The arrival of the steamer La Touraine from New York at Havre with the survivors of the wrecked steamer La Bourgogne was the occasion of a sad scene and a sensational demonstration on the part of a great crowd which had assembled. The tears and sobs of the relatives of those who were drowned, when they found that the last hope was gone, were heart-rending, contrasting markedly with the transports of joy of the friends of the saved.

Terribly Beat His Father.

Tipton, Ind., July 18.—Michael Schmitt, a young farmer living southeast of this city, is in the county jail with the probability of having to answer for his father's life. Young Schmitt attempted to haul away some hay belonging to his sister, and his father remonstrated against the act, with the result that the son attacked the old gentleman, who is 63 years of age, with a monkey wrench, and beat him into insensibility.

Murdered His Divorced Wife.

Washington, Ind., July 18.—Sara Cole, colored, was murdered by her divorced husband, James Cole, northwest of this city. The murderer then made several attempts on the life of his four children, who accompanied their mother, but his bullets flew wild. Seeing that he had killed his wife Cole fired a pistol ball into his heart. Cole had just returned from Jeffersonville where he served time for forgery.

Workman Electrocutated.

Indianapolis, July 18.—While the repair wagon of the electric street railway was repairing a break in the trolley wire Joseph Huff, driver of the wagon, after raising the ladder, climbed up and stood waiting for the linemen. The latter cautioned him, but Huff placed one hand on the trolley pole while the other grasped the wire overhead. This formed a short circuit and he was instantly killed.

Seeking Honorable Peace.

Madrid, July 18.—A member of the cabinet, in an interview, asserted that the government was seeking an honorable peace with the United States.

WHEN Judge Pugh came into Mason County last week and attempted to turn down ex-Mayor William H. Cox right here in his home he made one of the worst and most foolish moves any politician was ever guilty of. In the first place in doing this he violated a political custom that has long been recognized, that of conceding to an opponent his home county. Pugh seems to imagine he is "the whole thing" in the Ninth Congressional district, however, and he no doubt concluded that if he could just turn Mr. Cox down in his home county all opposition would at once vanish. He believed himself reasonably certain of the nomination anyhow without this county, and his fight against Mason County's candidate on Saturday was, simply and plainly, an effort on his part to humiliate Mr. Cox by turning him down in his own home. He did not succeed in accomplishing this, but it was not through any lack of effort on the part of himself and friends. Many of the best Republicans of the county look upon Mr. Pugh's action as a "shame" and an "outrage" and do not mince words in expressing themselves. That there is strong disaffection in the ranks of their party in many counties of the district Mr. Pugh and his friends will admit, and Mr. P.'s foolish action on Saturday has only intensified that disaffection in Mason County and may lose him many a vote he would have otherwise received. The disaffected have it in their power to "even things up" with the Judge, and they may take a notion to do so next November.

HON. W. B. SMITH, of Richmond, says that within the next twenty days he will announce whether he will be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor. It is probable that he will run, says a dispatch, now that it is certain that Major P. P. Johnston, of Lexington, will not be a candidate. Mr. Smith, Mr. P. Wat Hardin, Senator William Goebel and ex-Congressman W. J. Stone are the only candidates thus far. Mr. Stone is the only one that has announced, but the others, except Mr. Smith, are candidates good and strong. Ex-Governor Brown is still reticent about his intentions.

The C. and O. Rewards Good Men.
 [Exchange.]

A few years ago M. L. Akers, the now popular and efficient Superintendent of terminals of the Chesapeake and Ohio and Big Four, was practically obscure as a railroad man; now he is known all over the country. While he was the Chief Clerk of General Manager Stevens, of the C. and O., he gave such eminent satisfaction that he was soon promoted. He was ever watchful of his company's interests, and his superior officers recognized this. When the immense C. and O. elevator burned in Richmond, Va. several years ago, wiping out several thousand bushels of grain, Mr. Akers was upon the scene and managed the affairs of his company with signal ability, and with the most successful results. After his orders to come to Louisville to take a better position, G. B. Wall was sent from Ashland, Ky., to Richmond to succeed him. Now Mr. Wall becomes General Real Estate Agent of this great system of railways, and Mr. Spicer takes Mr. Wall's old place. These things go to show how fairly the C. and O. deals with its men.

Burgoo For Soldiers.
 LEXINGTON, Ky., July 16.—The Lexington Canning Company to-day contracted with a Chicago firm to furnish 500,000 small tins of the famous Kentucky burgoo. Army officers here are examining the manufacture of the soup, and a contract for the soldiers will be closed at once. A 3,500 gallon kettle, the largest soup kettle in the country, was put up to-day.

Increase in School Per Capita.
 FRANKFORT, Ky., July 15.—The school fund this year provides a per capita of $2.30 per pupil. This is an increase of 10 cents as compared with the per capita of last year.

Superintendent Davidson has prepared a communication addressed to county superintendents and school officers which explains the increase.

HARRY B. WOOD, of Helena, and Miss Mattie E. Cooper, of Nepton, will be married to-day at Shannon.

Was the Republican Mass Meeting at the Court House Saturday.

Friends of Ex-Mayor Cox Give Judge Pugh a Black Eye—The Proceedings.

The Republican mass meeting Saturday afternoon to select delegates to the Congressional convention was a lively affair. The court room was packed by the faithful when 1 o'clock arrived.

Though that was the time set for the convention to meet, it was twenty minutes past one before the house was called to order by Mayor Stallcup who had been authorized to do so by Chairman Mathews of the Executive Committee.

It was Cox against Pugh and the confusion and noise caused by the rival factions was so great that but little the Chairman said could be heard.

Judge Wadsworth moved that the temporary Chairman be made the permanent Chairman. W. H. Lynch placed W. D. Cochran in nomination.

Mayor Stallcup vacated the chair and was succeeded by Secretary Hickman.

Judge Wadsworth then moved that the vote be taken by the yeas and nays. W. H. Wadsworth, Esq., offered an amendment that the Chair appoint two tellers from each side to stand at the doors and take the vote by count as the crowd filed out. The amendment was accepted and Judge Wadsworth and E. H. Bryant for Pugh, and A. M. J. Cochran and C. C. Hopper for Cox were appointed. The count resulted:

Cochran .....352
 Stallcup .....109

The announcement was greeted with wild cheers by the friends of Mr. Cox, and Mr. Cochran was declared elected.

W. H. Lynch was chosen temporary Secretary, unanimously.

The temporary organization was on motion made permanent.

The liveliest scene of the meeting now occurred. Judge A. A. Wadsworth arose and started to read a set of resolutions.

The first paragraph was an endorsement of President McKinley and his administration. As the Judge finished reading it, Mr. A. M. J. Cochran moved that it be adopted. This was done unanimously.

The second paragraph was an endorsement of the last Congress and pledging the Republicans of the county to the support of the party. This was also unanimously adopted.

The next paragraph was an endorsement of the official acts of Judge Pugh as member of Congress. Mr. Samuel T. Hickman moved that it be adopted. Mr. W. H. Wadsworth moved as an amendment that it be laid on the table. Mr. Hickman and Judge Wadsworth both demanded to be heard. Chairman Cochran rapped them down, adding that they could talk as soon as he stated the question. They were proceeding to talk when Editor Thomas A. Davis made the point that a motion to lay on the table was not debatable. In the confusion, Mr. A. M. J. Cochran got the floor and announced that the resolutions had been withdrawn. Judge Wadsworth tore up the resolutions and threw the scraps into a spittoon, exclaiming: "We'll debate this question at Greenup, gentlemen."

Judge Pugh's friends were overwhelmingly outnumbered, and this was their last move.

On motion the Chair appointed W. W. Gault, J. D. Dye and P. Sammons a committee to select delegates to the district convention at Greenup next Tuesday. They reported the following:

Resolved, That the following be, and they are hereby, named and constituted as delegates to the Congressional convention, to be held at Greenup, Ky., on the 19th day of July, 1898, to select a Republican candidate for Congress in the Ninth Congressional district, to-wit:

The report was adopted and then W. H. Davis, of the Fifth ward, moved that the convention proceed to reorganize the County Executive Committee. Mr. Hickman, Secretary of the committee, presented rules showing this was not in order. There was a strong desire and some talk of overriding the rules, but the motion was finally withdrawn and the convention then adjourned.

Yellow Jaundice Cured.

Suffering humanity should be supplied with every means possible for its relief. It is with pleasure we publish the following: "This is to certify that I was a terrible sufferer from yellow jaundice for over six months, and was treated by some of the best physicians in our city and all to no avail. Dr. Bell, our druggist, recommended Electric Bitters; and after taking two bottles, I was entirely cured. I now take great pleasure in recommending them to any person suffering from this terrible malady. I am gratefully yours, M. A. Hogarty, Lexington, Ky. Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son, druggists.

BURGLARS AT WORK.

Mr. J. H. Richardson's Residence Ransacked last Evening in the Absence of the Family.

The residence of Mr. J. H. Richardson on Forest avenue was entered last evening by a thief or thieves who secured about $15 in cash.

The theft was committed while Mr. and Mrs. Richardson and their guests, Miss Carrie Morford, a sister of Mrs. Richardson, and Miss Ida Proctor, a cousin of Mr. Richardson, were at church. On their return home, one of the doors was found open. It is thought the door was opened by means of a skeleton key. The rooms had been ransacked. About $13 of the money stolen belonged to Miss Morford.

The police were at once notified and are at work on the case. Home talent is suspected.

Fremont Park.

"Six days shalt thou labor, but on the seventh thou shalt rest." Fremont Park gives no show on Sunday, either free or for pay. Therefore quiet reigns and rest obtains for the employees. To-night at 8:30 a charming bill will be given; new faces, new acts, new songs, with a winnowed collection of the artists to strengthen the program and give patrons good measure. Col. Fremont is working hard to give the best show possible. He was handicapped only in being in the field a little late, but to a hustler this obstacle is easily removed, for as one of old while 'tis not in his power to command success he'll do more, he'll deserve it. They recognize Fremont Park as the amusement centre.

The Colonel will have startling features very soon, so keep your eyes wide open and your ears stick up; you'll hear and see something which will convince you Fremont Park is the place for high-class vaudeville and exceptional free exhibitions.

Mons. Jack Cansell will positively appear on the high wire this evening, and give a performance, free, outside the tent.

PUGH WINS.

His Renomination Conferred—Result of the Mass Meetings last Saturday.

The Republicans of the various counties in this district held mass meetings Saturday afternoon to elect delegates to the Congressional convention at Greenup to-morrow.

Of the thirteen counties in the district, Lewis, Greenup, Boyd, Lawrence, Bath, Rowan, Nicholas, Harrison, Fleming and Robertson instructed for Judge Pugh and Mason for ex-Mayor Cox, which gives Pugh practically a walkover for the nomination.

Bracken and Carter counties send two delegations. The Robertson County meeting wrangled and fought for three hours and finally compromised by giving Pugh first instructions and Cox second.

A Continuation of Our $7.65 Suit Sale.

We will continue to sell $10, $12 and $15 Suits for $7.65 during this entire month. There are two reasons for this. One is that we find we have many more good Suits to put in this sale than we thought we had. The other reason is that our many country patrons are in the midst of the heaviest work of the year and did not yet have an opportunity to avail themselves of these splendid bargains, hence the sale continues during the month.

Don't Miss the Opportunity

of buying for $7.65 a Suit of Clothes that would cost you from $12 to $15 elsewhere, and at these prices you would not pay too much for them. They are worth it. Respectfully,

Electric Park.

The offerings at this popular amusement resort this week are certainly the "top liners" in vaudeville. They are Harry and Laura Eldon in the comedy creation, "Courtship in a Chinese Laundry," which is interspersed with funny characterizations, ludicrous situations, feats of juggling, hat spinning, acrobatic gyrations, witty repartee; in all an act that is an absolute novelty and has made a big hit wherever presented. Entirely new to Maysville theater goers. "Parkinson and Roth" in their eccentric comedy act "A Crazy Pair," introducing Miss Roth in a classical trombone solo, and a trick violin novelty. Miss Roth is possessed of a very sweet voice and will render some of the latest song successes, while "Mr. Parkinson" is a real comedian with a big bunch of funny sayings. The old favorites, "Seeker, Wilkes and 'Rastus,'" will have something new.

Go out to-night and enjoy yourself. It is free to street car patrons. Get coupon ticket from conductor.

SCHLEY.

Schley,
He saw 'em with his little eye
That's why
Their cruisers lie
All battered up there on the beach—
Schley's a peach.
That's what!
He opened up with shell and shot—
One ship against the lot!
Schley
Went in to do or die,
And he did—
Just smashed the lid
Of their cracker box,
Schley, old fox!
Why
Didn't somebody mention Schley
When the good news came?
Did they try
To keep his name
From being coupled with the glorious work?
Did they try to jerk
The credit he had won
Away?
Well, hardly, but what's done is done—
They
Were excited that day!—
So here's to Schley,
The man
Who saw them with his little eye,
As they ran
For the open sea!
He
Is the man who merits praise—
To him is due
The credit, and he'll get it to,
One of these days!
Just keep on, Schley,
You're all right;
It was your fight—
The world will know it by and by!
—Cleveland Leader.

"Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles, has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. Thus writes W. C. Hannick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at J. James Wood's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1. Every bottle guaranteed.

The Cincinnati Leaf Tobacco Warehouse Company, in its circular for the week, has the following:

There was an active market last week, with good bidding by both manufacturers and speculators. At a special sale of good to fine tobaccos at the Bodmann House on Thursday fine tobacco certainly had its inning, and although the amount of these goods offered was largely in excess of the ordinary there was unabated interest, and it was quite evident that much larger quantities would readily have been taken. The highest price realized was $23; average on 109 lbsds. $13.90.

Outside of this special sale the market was stronger than it has been for some time, prices fully maintained or advanced on nearly all grades.

Redried tobacco is now being offered more liberally and is making a very fine showing. Generally, with good body and of splendid color, these goods will have no trouble to find a ready market.

The growing crop is reported in fine condition, with the exception of the river counties, where the general prospect is very discouraging.
